About Our Summer Camp

Join the Pittsburgh Youth Concert Orchestra in a rewarding five-day immersive program.

The camp features:

- Exciting orchestra & wind ensemble repertoire to maintain your skills during the summer
- Expertly selected music to challenge young musicians in a friendly and relaxed environment
- Sectional rehearsals, musicianship classes, instrument clinics, master classes, coaching of chamber groups, as well as team-building recreational activities
- An opportunity to create life-long memories with old and new friends in a fun and supportive atmosphere

Camp Director & Instructors

Camp Director Pablo Ardiles is the Artistic Director and conductor of the Pittsburgh Youth Concert Orchestra. Mr. Ardiles brings many years of experience as the founder and former director of the Musik Innovations Chamber Music & Orchestra Camp which ran successfully from 1996 to 2010.

Camp Instructors are faculty members of the Pittsburgh Youth Concert Orchestra, as well as professional musicians from Pittsburgh area orchestras and schools.

Audition Information

An audition for admission to the camp IS NOT required. However, to place you properly, we ask you to submit a 2-4 minute video recording of your playing, demonstrating your best technical and musical abilities, to info@pyco.org. A YouTube video recording is preferred.

Consult with your teacher for the best music selection for your recording. Alternatively you can contact PYCO to schedule a placement audition. Students who are members of the PYCO Orchestra or any PYCO Ensemble do not need to submit a recording or request a placement audition.

Ensemble Levels

- Students may perform in the Beginner, Intermediate, or Advanced ensemble level(s).
- Placement will be determined at the discretion of the ensemble directors.
- All ensemble levels will perform in the concert at the end of the week for family and friends.
